Outcome: After the meeting, our team get some feedback about our project from industry mentors: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Due to some data are manually entered into the excel, therefore, the quality and reliability of the data may not be sure. We need to find more reliable datasets to improve the data quality.2. Some functions in the website may not attractive, as a result, the target audience may not use the website in the future. They suggested our team to make something more special to appeal to more users. According to their feedback, our team accepts the first advice, due to data is important in the whole project. But our team will not consider the second suggestion in this stage, because the time is limited for now, and our team has to focus on finishing the functions in the first iteration. We will consider other special functions in the rest two iterations.
